A description of the motion picture
NEBRASKA UNDER FIRE for the Register of Copyrights, Washington, D.C. to accompany blank M2.

This is an eight reel scenic picture giving the story of Nebraska troops in the World War.

The story opens with the training of these troops at Camp Cody and at Camp Funston. It follows them aboard the transports, to their landing in France and England.

They are shown at work in the Service of Supply and in the Rolampant training area. Following this, participation of these troops in battles around Chatteau Thierry, St. Mihiel and the Meuse Argonne are given.

Following the close of the Meuse Argonne battle and the Armistice Day, movements of the Nebraska troops into Germany with the Army of Occupation are depicted. Also the final review held in Germany, and their embarkation for the U.S.A.
